BOTANIC 57

Something sweet, or something sour? Our Botanic 57 offers the perfect balance – refreshing local cucumber, sour green grapes, fresh lemon juice; finished with hints of lychee and pear from elderflower liqueur, and Grey Goose vodka.

EAST SIDE

When Japan's favorite Yuzu meets tangy local grapefruit - expect an aromatic and palate opening cocktail topped off with a touch of bubbly... and a sweet surprise. Crafted using Tanqueray No. Ten gin, Lemon and Grapefruit citrus; served with home-made Yuzu sorbet.

BIBIK'S DELIGHT

Do you know Kaya, Singapore's favourite jam? Inspired by the pandan flavoured native staple, enjoy a taste of our traditional breakfast in a glass. Havana Club Anejo rum, Cointreau, tea, honey citrus and fragrant Kaya jam.

STRAITS SUNRISE

Not your typical Margarita - dressed in a brilliant hue of coral contrasting the calming azure straits, we are taking it up a notch by infusing local flavours of caramelized fresh pineapple and strawberry with Angostura bitters and sugar, Agave and of course, Don Julio Tequila.

MARKISA

Lay back, soak in the tropical sun and ignite the mood to party! The use of the Passion fruit, or 'Markisa' as it is known in Malay, with citrus, egg white, Maker's Mark bourbon and hints of ginger that leaves a sweet acidic lingering aftertaste.

MALAYAN SUN & SAND

Transport yourself back to a time when life moved at a slower pace. Lay back on a uninhabited beach and soak up the setting tropical sun. Sweet, sour and peated! Chivas Regal 18 year old Scotch, Martini Rosso, Peter Heering cherry liqueur and fresh citrus juices. Mist with Laphroaig Quarter Cask.

ONCE UPON A THAI

'And the city don't know that the city is getting...' Inspired by Murray Head's One Night in Bangkok, this gem features Hennessy XO cognac, kaffir lime leaves, dark grapes, peach liqueur, citrus and ginger ale.

FROZEN COCKTAILS

SOUTH SIDE

Frostily fresh, tingly minty.

NEGRONI

Slightly sweet, boldly bitter.

MARGARITA

Classically refreshing, simplistically elegant.

CLASSIC

BERRY BELLINI

There's nothing better to start off the evening with than this twist on a classic Bellini with deep red hues from berries, Chambord and sparkling wine. An all-time sunset favourite since 2010, this is a true CÉ LA VI classic.

BRAMBLE

Created in the 1980s in London, this classic is a revitalising elixir with slight sourness punctuated by a sweet finish. Ideal before or after dinner.

WHITE RUSSIAN

This spin-off from the classic Black Russian has a creamy finish. A perfect choice with desserts for a creamier taste or after dinner as a perfect nightcap.

CLASSIC

MAI TAI

Trader's Vic claimed to have invented this drink in 1944, and his rival Don the Beachcomber made the same claim as the original creator in 1933. Though the origin remains a mystery... our only claim is that our concoction is out of this world.

MOJITO

"My mojito in La Bodeguita..." was the writing on the wall that made the bar famous when Ernest Hemingway professed his love for his favourite drink. This clear popular highball is refreshing and zesty, perfect for a sunny afternoon.

TOMMY'S MARGARITA

Created in early 1990s by legendary bartender Julio Bermejo, the drink was named after his family's Mexican restaurant in San Francisco. A classic variant where quality Agave nectar enhances the citrus notes of a traditional Margarita.

OLD FASHIONED

Also referred to as a Bitter Sling, Pendennis Club in Louisville, Kentucky invented the drink in 1806 in honor of Colonel James E. Pepper. American whiskey, bitters and syrup combine to produce a strong and balanced concoction with fresh orange notes.

WHISKEY SOUR

Invented by Elliot Stubb in 1872, this classic still stands tall after 145 years. Simple and sour with a smooth texture. We express our love for the drink.
