A beautiful blunder!

In 1972, Mirko Stocchetto at the Bar Basso in Milan added Prosecco instead of Gin by chance to the beloved Negroni. One taste led him to realise that this miracle variation was a revelation & led him to curating the classic cocktail that is enjoyed around the world today.

Another beautiful blunder in the 1920s when Fernand Petiot, an American bartender at Harry's New York Bar in Paris, mixed up equal parts of tomato juice & vodka. Sophisticated New Yorkers asked Petiot to spice it up. He added black pepper, cayenne pepper, Worcestershire sauce, lemon and--for those who wanted more spirit-- a generous splash of TABASCO pepper sauce. That is how a classic was born.
