Special selection by BOTTLE

- 2008 Ferrari, Perlé Brut, DOC, Trento doc, Trentino-Alto Adige, Italy 3,500
A vintage Blanc de Blancs obtained from a special selection of Chardonnay grapes grown in mountainside vineyards, situated in the finest zones of Trentino for the production of Trentodoc. Ferrari Perlé is an icon of Ferrari style, a synthesis of elegance, freshness and harmonizing complexity. Straw yellow in colour, with golden highlights. On the nose it stands out with its broad notes of citrus fruits, hazelnuts and apples, as well as an elegant underlying hint of crusty bread, all accompanied by a faint spiciness. It is well-balanced and intense on the palate, with an appealing tanginess which is a distinctive characteristic of its unique, highly recognizable style. Its aftertaste offers seductive notes reminiscent of almonds and bergamot, creating a sensation of extraordinarily satisfying harmony.
Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 93 Points, Wine Spectator 91 Points
- 2004 Barolo, Ciabot Mentin Ginestra DOCG, Domenico Clerico, Piemonte, Italy 11,500
The most representative wine of the estate, Clerico's Barolo "Ciabot Mentin Ginestra" comes from vines planted at 400 meters with south to southeast exposure, giving the wine its characteristic explosive aromas of ripe red fruit, licorice and mint.
"The 2004 Barolo Ciabot Mentin Ginestra sweeps across the palate with stunning depth and expansiveness in its dark cherries, menthol, spices, chocolate and sweet toasted oak. It offers exceptional length and delineation, with a note of freshness that provides lift on the close. It is a profound effort from Domenico Clerico. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2024" (Wine Avocate 2007)
Wine Advocate: 97 Points, Stephen Tanzer: 94 Points, Wine Spectator: 93 Points
- 2014 Barolo, Cannubi, DOCG, Damilano, Piemonte - Italy 5,400
Damilano is one of the oldest wineries in Barolo. The family business dates back to 1890 when Giuseppe Borgogno started cultivating and producing wine from the grapes from his own vineyards.
Vintage 2014, The color is garnet ruby red with orange reflections. The bouquet is ample and embracing, with pronounced fruity notes of cherry and plum. On the nose there are notes of tobacco, licorice, and cocoa. The taste is harmonious, and pleasantly dry with soft tannins. This wine is broad and full-bodied, with a persistent finish. Barolo Cannubi is a sumptuous wine, perfect with the full-flavored Piedmontese cuisine such as white truffle-based dishes and braised meat. Ideal with the refined dishes.
James Suckling 94 points, Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 93 Points, Wine Spectator 93 points
- 2015 Pinot Noir, Pegasus Bay, Waipara Valley, New Zealand 2,800
The vineyard is located within the Waipara Valley of North Canterbury, on free draining, north facing terraces carved out of New Zealand's Southern Alps by an ice-age glacier. Traditional Burgundian winemaking methods were used to make this wine. The wine has a vibrant ruby appearance. On the nose there is a selection of red fruit aromas (raspberry, pomegranate and cherry), as well as pepper and clove. Underpinning this are savoury notes reminiscent of grilled game and black olive tapenade. The palate is satisfyingly concentrated with fine grained tannins, however there is a refreshing minerality which ensures the wine remains tight and focused, with a lasting finish
James Suckling 96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 91 points, Wine Spectator 88 points
