

THE RAFFLES AFTERNOON TEA EXPERIENCE

The Afternoon Tea ritual, much like Raffles Singapore was fashioned in the 19th century. A cherished tradition since its founding in Great Britain, the experience journeyed to Asia during the golden age of travel.

The founders of Raffles Singapore, the visionary Sarkies brothers, brought this elegant experience into our Grand Lobby. Since its introduction, the Raffles Afternoon Tea remains popular until today.

Revel in the elegance and grandeur of our Grand Lobby, as you take in the gracious hospitality, rich heritage and timeless refinement that is synonymous with Raffles.

EXQUISITE TEA SELECTION

Hand-picked by our tea sommeliers, the Raffles Afternoon Tea experience is paired with loose tea leaves from “Mariage Frères”. Founded by tea merchants in the 1800s who traded extensively with Persia, their roots lie in similar origins as our founders, The Sarkies Brothers.

Delight in one of the following “Mariage Frères” teas of your choice.

BLACK TEA

Orange Pekoe Ceylan

A full-bodied black tea hand-picked from the Sri Lankan gardens offers a sustained yet delicate, mild taste.

Earl Grey Imperial

A grand tea sourced from Darjeeling, India, this elegant bergamot flavoured tea is the perfect companion for a daytime brew.

FRUIT TEA

Rouge Opéra

A naturally theine-free tea composed of Red Rooibos from South Africa paired with luscious red fruits and vanilla.

GREEN TEA

Vert Provence

A grand green tea blended with Provençal fruits. Delightful floral aroma with ripe red and black berries and a slightly grassy hint.

Perles de Thé au Jasmin

Precious individually hand-rolled pearls of fine tea harmoniously scented with jasmine for a suave, refined cup of tea.

Casablanca

A fine marriage of green tea with refreshing Moroccan mint and aromatic bergamot flavoured tea.

Heighten your Raffles Afternoon Tea experience with an enhanced selection of exceptional teas from the “Mariage Frères” Jardin Premier collection:

Gold Himalaya

Sourced from a little known parcel of land in Eastern Nepal, this organic first flush grand cru black tea is grown at an altitude between 1,000 and 2,000 meters. The silver-brown buds transform into a beautiful amber-coral shade revealing an intense umami sensation with notes of mimosa, blooming fig tree, blood peach, and a finish of white cherry.

Brumes d'himalaya

An exceptional organic tea from the Ambootia estate in the misty Himalayan mountain in Darjeeling. Earning the SFTGFOP1 rating, the highest possible for a whole leaf tea, the extremely selective plucking is conducted on a summer night under a rising moon. The young leaves produce a golden liquor tasting of hazelnut and muscatel with a long finishing floral aroma.

BLUE TEA

10

Maori Blue

This small tea estate in Waikato, New Zealand has devoted itself to producing 100% organic tea. The dark green leaves have a pronounced aroma dominated by clover honey with a touch of vanilla and sandalwood. The brewed tea exudes a floral bouquet accompanied by a fresh note of cedar.

Lung Ching Supreme

A true grand cru green tea plucked in very small quantities in Zhejiang, China. It creates a fine brew perfumed with steamed patisserie aroma and notes of candied persimmon, pistachio, white peach and vanilla. This sensuous tea offers a lingering note of ylang-ylang on the finish.

Gyokuro

This superior green tea from Kyoto, Japan, consists of hand-harvested buds that are only picked once a year. The tea plant is placed in the shade for three weeks prior to the harvest to increase the chlorophyll content and reduce the tannin. This creates a subtle and smooth jade green liquor considered as the noblest green tea in the world.
