THE BAR
AT 15 STAMFORD

Dear Guests,

Welcome to The Bar at 15 Stamford. Let us take you on a journey into history as we talk about the life of Joseph Balestier and our rum collection. Joseph Balestier was the first US consul to Singapore and he moved here with his wife, Maria Revere who is the daughter of Boston Tea Party revolutionary and civil war midnight rider Paul Revere. The family's home when they moved to Singapore was actually located on the very site that the Capitol Building stands today.

Joseph Balestier was a planter and a merchant by profession. He managed to offer jobs to the locals at his farm and worked with them closely to grow pineapples, sugar cane, and it is said that he was able to make his own rum back in the day. Looking back, it is only fitting for us to build our bar around rum and the life of Joseph Balestier.

More into history, Joseph's wife, Maria Revere, donated a bell which signifies the heroic actions of her father back in the day in Singapore just before leaving the country. This bell was used to alert the locals that it is getting dark and that everyone should find safety or refuge within their homes. Now, this bell sits at the National Museum of Singapore.

As tribute to Joseph Balestier and his family, we have created a menu with cocktails inspired around his journey in Singapore. At 20:00 everyday, we will also ring the bell for five times. This is not to scare you away but every person that is sitting at the bar will be given a small cocktail from our friendly bartenders.

Discover the different style of rums available at our bar as we continue to build our collection. If you wish to have cocktails, we have a menu specially crafted by our bartenders, with special shout out to our signature drink - PLANTATION 1840.

If you wish to know more about our story, you may ask any of our friendly colleagues. We look forward to sharing with you all about our journey!

Warmest regards,

The Bar at 15 Stamford team
