THE FORGOTTEN & MODERN CLASSIC COCKTAILS

BLOOD & SAND

158

Created in 1922, the drink is named after Rudolph Valentino's bullfighter movie. Traditionally made with equal parts blended scotch whisky, cherry brandy, sweet vermouth and orange juice. The deep red cherry brandy is said to represent the blood and the orange juice the sand.

CLOVER CLUB

158

A drink that pre-dates Prohibition in the United States and is named for the Philadelphia men's club. It has a long history dating back to at least 1910 and was enjoyed by the captains of industry who were members of the famous club. This classic cocktail uses fresh raspberries and lemon juice for a tart, sweet flavor, and fresh egg white to create a smooth, creamy texture and foamy finish.

PORN STAR MARTINI

158

The cocktail was created in 2002 LAB bar founder Douglas Ankrah at The Townhouse bar in Knightsbridge. A passionfruit and vanilla crowd-pleaser with zesty lime served with sparkling wine that would entice a porn star to drink.

OLD CUBAN

198

Created in 2004 by Audrey Saunders at the Pegu Club, New York. Sitting somewhere between a Mojito and a French 75, this delicious beverage plays homage to the Cuban culture with a very generous helping of two types of Cuban rum. The key to this drink is using aged rums hence the 'Old' part of its name. A luxurious minty Daiquiri with a splash of champagne.

SIDE CAR

198

Invented around the end of World War I in either London or Paris. The drink was directly named for the motorcycle attachment, which was very commonly used back then. A refreshing, delightfully olde-timey mix of cognac and orange liqueur and a zest lemon.

TOMMY'S MARGARITA

198

Created in circa 1987/88 by Julio Bermejo and named after his family's Mexican restaurant and bar in San Francisco, the self-proclaimed "premier tequila bar on earth". At Tommy's the classic Margarita is enhanced by using agave syrup in place of triple sec and the use of hand squeeze limes.
