

WINE BY THE GLASS

MOET BRUT IMPERIAL CHAMPAGNE

This Pinot Noir/Meunier driven Champagne- formerly known as “White Star”- was originally formulated for a famous Trans-Atlantic cruise liner that brought cocktail-thirsty Americans to Europe during Prohibition.

ELK COVE ESTATE RIESLING 2017

Warm days and moderately cool nights in Oregon’s Wilamette Valley led to ideal ripening conditions for the grapes. Winemaker Adam Campbell called it “the stuff dreams are made of” to produce this vintage.

RUINART ROSÉ CHAMPAGNE

The blend is composed of Chardonnay from the Côte des Blancs and Montagne de Reims vineyards and Pinot Noir from the Montagne de Reims and Vallée de la Marne vineyards; all hand-picked and fermented in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks.

FOPPIANO ESTATE PETITE SYRAH 2015

Winemaker Paul Foppiano balances the dark berry fruit and gripping tannin by utilizing hand punch downs and light pump overs during fermentation to yield a wine that’s become this family owned vineyards flagship.

SERVED VIA CORAVIN

HENRI BOURGEOIS SANCERRE 'JADIS' 2015

Sauvignon Blanc grapes grown for this wine are planted in Kimméridgian Marls from the well-exposed slopes of Chavignol. After pressing, the juice is fermented in both steel tanks and oak barrels, which create a creamy mouthfeel without compromising the cuvée's aromatics

DOMAINE MATROT MEURSAULT 'BLAGNY' PREMIER CRU 2015

Domaine Matrot is one of the oldest estate-bottlers in Burgundy. The Chardonnay grapes grown for this bottling are harvested from old vines grown on steep slopes with calcareous clay subsoil that imbues the wine with a flinty minerality.

FAMILLE PERRIN CHÂTEAU DE BEAUCASTEL 2016

Grenache, Mourvèdre and Syrah- along with thirteen other grape varieties authorized under appellation- are grown on the 70-hectare Château De Beaucastel plot at the Northern limit of Châteauneuf du Pape. The grapevines are old and have been farmed organically for 50 years, encouraging the roots to grow deep into the pebbly sand, clay and limestone soil.
